Durable...it takes one word to define our expectations of this filly. We loved what we saw in a May foal at an August yearling sale and she has continued to grow into a well-conformed, smart-as-they-come, good moving filly. Slew City Slew developed a reputation as a "racehorse" sire. His offspring proved durable, reliable, and more than 100 of them became stakes winners. Slew City Lou was born in the last crop of this Seattle Slew line and joins the ranks of horses that have earned more than $45,000,000. Her dam, stakes-placed, Our Linda Lou, recorded nine in-the-money finishes in 17 starts. She has one other foal to start, a stakes-placed filly with three wins from 13 starts.

Millionaire Slew City Slew and this filly's dam sire Victory Gallop, both ran their best races after turning three. We don't plan to rush this filly and at this point she looks to be growing up just right. A two-turn mile or more should be right in her cross-hairs. She broke very easily this fall and showed a keen sense of awareness in every situation she faced. Her intelligence is evident to all around her and she was a smooth mover on the track. We turned her out with three other fillies to grow and enjoy being a horse through the cooler months of winter and just returned her to training in May. She is currently starting to breeze and is on track for a 4th quarter 2013 start.

As a Louisiana-bred, this filly will enjoy the ability to compete in lucrative state-restricted, slots-supplemented races. For owners looking for a chance to own a classy filly, with a great out cross from the Seattle Slew line, this horse represents a unique opportunity.
